Financial Rights and Responsibilities

The Office of the University Bursar's mission is to provide quality service in achieving financial resolutions for students and their families. To provide students and their families with a full understanding of their financial obligations, we have incorporated this information into the registration process. Students will be prompted to read and agree to these terms each semester before enrolling in classes.

Student Financial Obligations and Tuition Repayment Agreement

I understand that as a student at Southern Methodist University, I am solely responsible and obligated both of these authorizations to contact me at the cell phone numbers and/or email addresses I provide, I will do so only by written email notification to enrol_serv@smu.edu.

I further authorize Southern Methodist University and its contracted agents to contact me via any communication method that I have provided to Southern Methodist University in order to collect any debt I owe to the University.

IRS Form 1098-T Reporting

I understand that Southern Methodist University will report to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service
