

Financial need: As determined by your institution using the federal methodology and/or your institution's own standards.

Need-based aid: Scholarships and grants from institutional, state, federal, or other sources for which a student must have financial need to qualify.

Need-based self-help aid: Loans and jobs from institutional, state, federal, or other sources for which a student must demonstrate financial need to qualify.

Non-need-based scholarship or grant aid: Scholarships and grants, gifts, or merit-based aid from institutional, state, federal, or other sources (including unrestricted funds or gifts and endowment income) awarded solely on the basis of academic achievement, merit, or any other non-need-based reason. When reporting questions H1 and H2, non-need-based aid that is used to meet need should be counted as need-based aid.

Note: Suggested order of precedence for counting non-need money as need-based:

1. Non-need-based aid from institutional, state, or other sources for which a student must demonstrate financial need to qualify.

Student loans: A nonfederal loan made by a lender such as a bank, credit union or private lender used to pay up to the annual cost of education, less any financial aid received.

External scholarships and grants: Scholarships and grants received from outside (private) sources that

H2. Number of Enrolled Students Awarded Aid: List the number of degree-seeking full-time and less-than-full-time undergraduates who applied for and were awarded financial aid from any source.

9 Aid that is non-need-based but that was used to meet need should be counted as need-based aid.

9 Numbers should reflect the cohort awarded the dollars reported in H1.

9 In the chart below, students may be counted in more than one row, and full-time, first-time, first-year students should also be counted as full-time undergraduates.

9 Do NOT include any aid related to the CARES Act or unique to the COVID-19 pandemic.
