Speed Study Diagrams

ubsections of your class. Use speed study diagrams to categorize relevant data from su columns to hide information and quiz yourself.

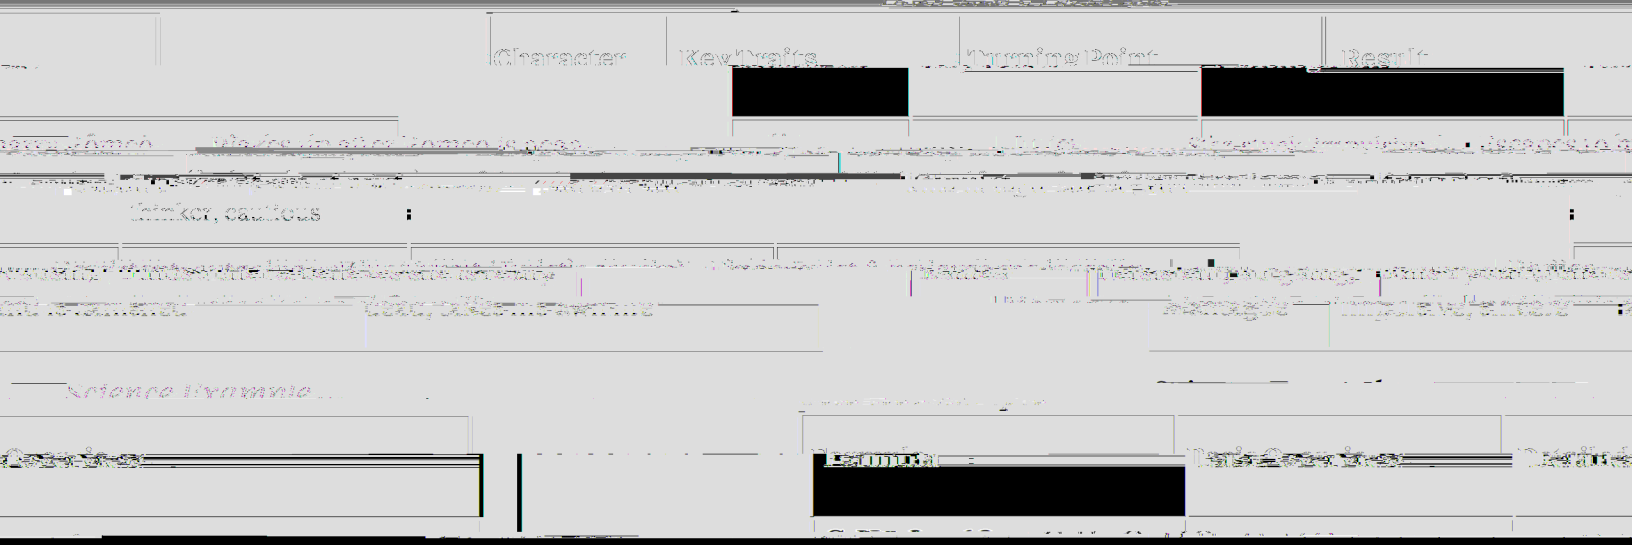
Categorize based on the subject matter. For example, in history you may have people, events, dates, and terms you need to know. In science you may need to know which formulas are related to which processes and how.


Examples