1.0 INTRODUCTION

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY'S Student Code of Conduct exists to identify and explain to the student body those University policies that most directly affect student life. Having voluntarily enrolled as students at Southern Methodist University and assumed a place in the University community, all students are presumed to be knowledgeable of, and to have agreed to abide by, the rules and regulations set forth in this Student Code of Conduct. The Student Code is received and evaluated by the Student Senate, which is the legislative body representing student interests. The writing of the Student Code involves students, is for students, and is the expression of the student body's relationship to the rest of the University. Hence, the Student Senate may at any time make recommendations to the code and the senate shall be asked to endorse it. Changes to the Student Code adopted by the Student Senate are subject to approval by the President of the University.

Based on the action of the Board of Trustees, the President of the University is authorized, at his discretion, to review all decisions of the Student Senate and all other student organizations, and all decisions of the University judiciary, including the University Judicial Council and all other judicial bodies. Such review shall include the power to take any action deemed appropriate, including reversing, amending, or remanding with instructions such decisions. The President's power of review as stated herein is not limited in any way, and the President is authorized to act at his/her sole discretion in conducting such review and in deciding what action is appropriate.

This Code is subject to the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Southern Methodist University as well as any and all resolutions, policies, and regulations of the University. In the event of conflict between this Code and said Articles, Bylaws, resolutions, policies, and regulations of the University, the University Articles, Bylaws, resolutions, policy, and/or regulation in question shall be controlling. The University Policy Manual may be accessed through the SMU web page under "Administration".

2.0 STUDENT RIGHTS, FREEDOMS & RESPONSIBILITIES

In recognition of Southern Methodist University's long history of dedication to the best principles of higher education in a democratic society, the following rights, freedoms, and responsibilities are set forth:

2.1 All students of the University are citizens of the community and members of the University, and as such are guaranteed freedom of expression, inquiry, and assembly. Students have the right to organize groups or to join associations in support of any cause or common interest as long as that support is voiced in an orderly manner and place that does not disrupt the regular operations of the University.

and their entrance shall not be denied. (See Sec. II, M for Residence Hall policy.) Nothing herein shall be construed to deny the University the right at any reasonable time to conduct inspections of student living areas on University owned property to determine compliance with health and safety regulations or to address a perceived emergency situation regarding a person's health and/or safety.

2.8(d) Every student shall be granted a fair hearing before an impartial judiciary body of peers, or an administrative official, whichever is deemed appropriate by the judicial officer, after consultation with the student.

2.9 Students will, at all times and in all activities, respect the rights of others, maintain responsible behavior conducive to the teaching and learning environment, and uphold the integrity of the University both on and off campus.

2.10 In addition to abiding by the Student Code of Conduct, students assuming leadership roles, in either elected or appointed capacities, will accept the responsibility to uphold and support the Student Code.

2.11 When behavior deemed to be in violation of or not in accordance with the Student Code, University policy, or any law upheld by SMU comes to the attention of the University, the University has the right to take disciplinary and/or civil action against those involved.

2.12 The privacy and confidentiality of all student records shall be preserved, in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended.

2.13 Unless otherwise specified in the Student Code, requests for changes to the Student Code are made by the Student Senate. Requests for changes may be submitted to the Student Body Secretary to investigate.

2.14 According to University Police, all students are required to maintain their personal records with the University and to check regularly their SMU e-mail account. Students may be deemed ineligible to enroll or may suffer administrative sanctions for failing to comply. University personnel will distribute important information to students through the SMU e-mail system, which will be an official means of notification to students by the University.

3.0 GENERAL POLICIES

3.1 ALCOHOL The University is dedicated to providing a healthy, safe, comfortable, and productive environment for students, faculty, staff, and guests. All members of the University community are expected to maintain self-control. Conduct should be consistent with ideals of academic excellence, health, and responsible social behavior, including recognition of the rights of others.

In recognition of the University's being owned by the South Central Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church, community members are urged to adhere to the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church which states:

We affirm our long-standing support of abstinence from alcohol as a faithful witness to God's liberating and redeeming love for persons...Since the use of alcohol and illegal drugs is a major factor in crime, disease, death, and family dysfunction, we support educational programs encouraging abstinence from such use. (The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, para.66j).

It is also recognized that Southern Methodist University is a community of free and open inquiry in which adults are encouraged to make responsible decisions in their lives; including abstinence from or careful use of alcohol. The University recognizes the freedom of conscience that determines such issues, but cautions that such freedom does not imply license to violate the law or University policy.

To maintain confidentiality of all details pertinent to a matter and of all actions related to a hearing and to refrain from comment on actions or persons involved in a judicial hearing;
To participate in training sessions and meetings;
To adhere to all provisions of the University Judicial Code and the Student Code of Conduct.

Members of the UJC or University Hearing Boards found to be responsible for violating the Student Code of Conduct or convicted of a criminal offense will be suspended from the student judiciary by the Vice President of Student Affairs. Members of the University Judiciary who find they are unable to meet the requirements of the judicial system shall so inform the Office of the Dean of Student Life and submit a letter of resignation.

II. OUTLINE OF THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM The judicial system is an education system, one that promotes growth, understanding, responsibility and accountability. Therefore, the University does not allow attorneys to actively participate in any way in the University's judicial system.

For an accurate understanding of any part of the system, one must review the pertinent detailed text in the rest of this section. The majority representation on all boards is students. The UJC, in conjunction with the Vice President for Student Affairs, makes recommendations/ amendments to the procedures of the judiciary to the President of the University.

- A. Proposals are to be made to the UJC for their recommendation, but final authority to change the judicial code rests with the University President.

1. At the conclusion of each hearing, the judicial officer or hearing board chair will submit the following documents to the Office of the Dean of Student Life: the decision, the reasons for the decision, and the reasons for the sanctions imposed.

The Honor Code

Intellectual integrity and academic honesty are fundamental to the processes of learning and of evaluating academic performance, and maintaining them is the responsibility of all members of an educational institution. The inculcation of personal standards of honesty and integrity is a goal of education in all the disciplines of the University.

The faculty has the responsibility of encouraging and maintaining an atmosphere of academic honesty by being certain that students are aware of the value of it, that they understand the regulations defining it, and that they know the penalties for departing from it. The faculty should, as far as is reasonably possible, assist students in avoiding the temptation to cheat. Faculty members must be aware that permitting dishonesty is not open to personal choice. A professor or instructor who is unwilling to act upon offenses is an accessory with the student offender in deteriorating the integrity of the University.

Students must share the responsibility for creating and maintaining an atmosphere of honesty and integrity. Students should be aware that personal experience in completing assigned work is essential to learning. Permitting others to prepare their work, using published or unpublished summaries as a substitute for studying required materials, or giving or receiving unauthorized assistance in the preparation of work to be submitted are directly contrary to the honest process of learning. Students who are aware that others in a course are cheating or otherwise acting dishonestly have the responsibility to inform the professor and/or bring an accusation to the Honor Council.

Students and faculty members must mutually share the knowledge that any dishonest practices permitted will make it more difficult for the honest students to be evaluated and graded fairly and will damage the integrity of the whole University. Students should recognize that both their own interest, and their integrity as individuals, suffer if they condone dishonesty in others.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE HONOR COUNCIL OF SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

The Honor Council shall authorize the University registrar to place an H.V. on the transcript. The H.V. shall remain on the student's transcript for three years after graduation or expected date of graduation. It shall then be removed from the transcript. Although it is presumed that a guilty verdict would result in assignment of a grade of F, the faculty member retains complete discretion to award a grade for the course he or she deems appropriate. 2. A sixth traffic citation will result not only in a fine but also in the individual being designated a habitual violator.

3. Securing a parking permit using fraudulent registration information or displaying a fictitious permit will result in the revocation of parking privileges and referral to the University Judicial Officer for further action. NOTE: Students who fraudulently register the vehicles of another will lose their parking privileges on the campus for the remainder of the academic year. Students should also be reminded that ANY citations received by others who have a registration permit in the registrant's name will be charged to the registrant's account.

If the "boot" is used, the violator must not under any circumstances try to move the vehicle. Any attempt to move the vehicle will result in damage to the locking device and/or the vehicle. SMU IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DAMAGE TO A VEHICLE THAT IS MOVED WHILE SECURED BY A "BOOT". ANY DAMAGE TO THE "BOOT" WILL BE CHARGED TO THE VEHICLE OWNER.

MOTORCYCLES

There are special regulations and state statutes applying to motorcycles, mopeds and motorbikes. Operators of these vehicles must be registered with the SMU Police Department and must display a parking permit. The same penalties for violations of regulations apply to them as

IN-LINE SKATES, SKATEBOARDS, TRICK BIKES, AND SCOOTERS:

The on-campus use of skateboards, scooters, in-line skates (“roller-blades”), and trick bikes is restricted to University faculty, staff and students. All other individuals are prohibited from using this recreational equipment on University property. Motorized scooters are not permitted for use on University property.

RESOLVING CITATIONS

The operator of a vehicle in violation of regulations will receive a citation either in person or attached to the vehicle. A violation fine is a University fee and must be paid at the Student Financial Services Office at the Laura Lee Blanton building or the Parking and ID Card Services office at Hughes-Trigg Student Center. Failure to pay the traffic violation fee will result in delays for students in receiving degrees and transcripts and in refusal of permission to register.

APPEALS

1. A traffic citation may be appealed by contacting the Parking and ID Card Services office, located inside the Hughes/Trigg Student Center, 214-768-2487, within 15 days of the citation date. (Please, do not call the police department)

3. Individuals who desire to question the current parking regulations may submit recommendations for changes to the Parking and ID Card Services Office.

UNIVERSITY PARK CITATIONS

In some instances, violators of the City of University Park fire, parking, or building ordinances will be issued City citations. These cases are filed in University Park Court and must be resolved by the judge of that court.

HABITUAL VIOLATOR STATUS

1. Upon issuance of six parking and/or traffic citations, an individual will be automatically designated as a “habitual violator”. Habitual violators may continue to park on campus as long as the vehicle is in an appropriate and legal space. However, subsequent violations will subject the violator to a fine and vehicle immobilization (booted)
2. If a vehicle owned or operated by a habitual violator is illegally parked anywhere on campus, that vehicle will be immobilized. Towing may be necessary in certain circumstances. All tow fees apply to the owner/operator.
3. Habitual violators who accumulate ten (10) or more citations during the academic year will have his/her parking privileges restricted to the Dedman 3 Lot for the remainder of the academic year. Habitual

Safety & Security

Southern Methodist University is pledged to fulfill its promise as a private university of the highest quality. Toward that end, a variety of services and programs are offered which are conducive to the support of the learning that occurs in the classroom. Uppermost among the services and programs are those that promote the safety and security of the campus community.

MUNICIPAL LAW ENFORCEMENT JURISDICTION

In addition to the SMU Police Department, the University Park Police Department has concurrent jurisdiction on the campus and, if needed, assists the SMU PD. The University Park Fire Department, which is within a few blocks of the SMU campus, provides fire fighting and emergency paramedic services to the campus. Through interagency agreements, the Highland Park Police Department and the Dallas Police Department also will provide assistance if the SMU Police Department requests it.

LAW ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY OF CAMPUS SECURITY PERSONNEL

The University employs 24 state commissioned police officers who carry firearms and have full law enforcement authority, duties and responsibilities. In addition to the police officers, the SMU Police Department also has uniformed security officers who provide security in the Fondren Library and parking enforcement services, as well as support for special event operations. All other persons are prohibited from possessing weapons on University property. The SMU Police Department has the responsibility and duty to enforce all local, state, and federal laws and to effect arrests and to provide for referral for prosecution of crimes to the city and county judicial systems. Any criminal violation committed on the campus will be processed through the state or federal criminal justice system.

8. Carry your personal belongings in a backpack or similar container that will enable your arms and hands to be free at all times.
9. Avoid approaching your car with bundles that restrict use of your arms. If you've been shopping, ask the store for assistance.
10. Always have your keys ready to unlock the door to your car or residence and enter without delay. Lock the doors after you get inside.
11. Before entering your car, look in the back seat and on the floorboard.
12. Always lock car doors and windows when you leave or enter your car.
13. Never leave belongings in plain view in your car. Lock them in the trunk.

SMU Policy on Sexual Harrassment

Southern Methodist University is committed to providing a work and study environment that encourages intellectual and academic excellence and the emotional well-being of its students, faculty, and staff. Circumstances, facts, and conduct that violate this policy contradict the University's educational philosophy and standard.

Southern Methodist University expressly prohibits sexual harassment of its students, faculty, or staff, or of applicants who seek to join the University community in any capacity.

SMU strives to provide an educational and working environment for its students, faculty, and staff free of intimidation and harassment. The unprofessional treatment of students and colleagues in any form is unacceptable to the University community.

- Educational materials and programs designed to increase awareness and understanding of sexual harassment and ways learning, or unduly interfering with an individual's work performance. For purposes of this policy, "undue interference" is defined as improper, unreasonable, or unjustifiable behavior going beyond what is appropriate, warranted, or natural.

EXAMPLES

- Physical assault
- Direct propositions of a sexual nature
- Direct statements regarding submission with promise of reward (i.e., higher grade, promotion, etc.) or threats of reprisal
- Implied statements regarding submission to sexual advances with promise of reward or threats of reprisal (i.e., "Meet me tonight for a drink, and I bet we can take care of your grade.")
- Subtle pressure for sexual activity (i.e., "How would you like to go to a conference in Minneapolis with me?")
- Pattern of conduct (not legitimately related to office business or the subject matter of a course) that causes humiliation or discomfort, such as sexually explicit or sexist comments, questions, anecdotes, or jokes

CONSENSUAL SEXUAL RELATIONSHIPS*

Faculty/Student Relationships

It is a serious breach of professional ethics for a teacher to initiate or acquiesce in a sexual relationship with a student who is under the personal supervision of the faculty member. Therefore, Southern Methodist University prohibits consensual sexual relationships between a faculty member and a student enrolled in a course taught by the faculty member or whose academic work is supervised by the faculty member. This applies even when both parties appear to have consented to the relationship. A faculty member who is or has been involved in a consensual sexual relationship with a person should not enter into a student/teacher relationship with that person.

A consensual sexual relationship between a faculty member and a student, particularly when the faculty member is of power, will irreparably undermine the professional relationship between them. The issue of power and control over the student remains so strong in a sexual relationship that voluntary consent by a student is improbable and highly questionable. What one thinks is voluntary consent may be only forced consent that the hidden, subtle pressure stemming from the faculty member's position of power has transformed into a "voluntary" act. Such a relationship creates an inevitable conflict of interest when the teacher makes judgments about a student's work.

The appearance of impropriety to the University community, which such relationships produce, casts doubt on the faculty member's academic decisions concerning a particular student's performance, the faculty member's overall professionalism and credibility, and the genuineness of the student's accomplishments where the faculty member is directly supervising and teaching the student.

OPTIONS FOR HANDLING SEXUAL HARASSMENT

- Know your rights. Sexual harassment is a violation of University policy and the Student Code. It is also prohibited under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. You have a right to an education or work environment that is free of bias, intimidation, or hostility.
- State your objections at the time. Express your objections to undesirable behavior clearly and firmly. Your response could prevent future harassment from the person especially if he or she did not realize the behavior was offensive.
- Tell someone. It is helpful to talk to a trusted friend, teacher, resident assistant, colleague, or counselor to help clarify the nature of the incident, receive support, and discuss alternative responses. Many victims of sexual harassment feel ashamed, angry, even frightened, and have a tendency to blame themselves for the incident. The staff of the Women's Center may be particularly helpful if you need emotional support and information on University policies and procedures. The services of the center are free and confidential.
- Document incidences. Note dates, times, places, persons involved, descriptions of the behavior, and how you responded in a journal or datebook. Keep notes or letters received from the person.
- Write a letter. A letter to the harasser can be an effective way to communicate one's objections to certain behaviors. Such a letter should state: (a) the facts of the situation, (b) the effects the behavior has had on the harassee, and (c) that the harassee would like the behavior to stop.
- Report the incidences on course evaluation forms. This option permits the complainant to report an incident anonymously to the faculty member and the chairperson of the department.
- Report the incident. The Institutional Access and Equity Office - administratively neutral and knowledgeable - can be helpful if you need information or want to file an informal or formal complaint. You may remain anonymous up until the point that you may decide to request an official review of the charges.
